Federal Communications Commission
Office of the Secretary

Re: Comments of Common Cause members and supporters concerning GN Docket 14-28 Protecting and Promoting the Open Internet and GN Docket 10-227 Framework for Broadband Internet Service

The Internet is the 21st century town square of democracy. Voters turn to the Internet to inform themselves; advocates use online tools to engage their constituencies; and citizens debate their differences on social media. Therefore, protecting and preserving Internet openness are crucial to democratic vibrancy and free expression online.

As the Federal Communications Commission deliberates over Open Internet rules, the attached commenters urge the Commission to reclassify broadband as a Title II Telecommunications Service. Doing so offers the Commission the only sure path forward to protect innovation and preserve the Internet as a platform for the exchange of democracy-enabling discourse. Anything less, including allowing paid-prioritization on "commercially reasonable" terms, would represent a step backwards for broadband users, and foreclose on the precious dynamism of the Open Internet.

Founded in 1970, Common Cause is a citizens' lobby, with 400,000 members and supporters dedicated to open, honest and accountable government.

The following are comments from some of our members who share our concerns.

Debbie	73527	Illegal monopoly!
..	.	Dear FCC, The Internet has been very successful, thanks to the wise stewardship of those who have preceded you. I ask that you maintain the net neutrality that is at the foundation of this success.
M	A
Martha	Aaaablom	Don't forget the common "guy on the street"!!!!
Piia	Aarma	Please, please retain net neutrality as it is. Open access, free communication is key to democracy. All Internet content should be treated equally. Corporate dominance in our country is already overwhelming, and should not be allowed entry here.
Ann	Abadie	Protect communications for all--not just the wealthy.
Jeff	Abare
Joanna	Abbott	It is crucial that we maintain an open internet. Please do not give in to the big telecom and cable companies!
Greta	Abbott	no two tier system for the internet access
Lou	Abbott	Please leave our internet alone. Control by telecom and cable is not what we need.
Bruce	Abbott
Suzette	Abbott
Wendi	Abbott
Akiko	Abe
Anna	Abend	Do what is right. Keep the internet equal and free. Your job is to advocate for the people, Not for the big corporate powers that advocate only for themselves.
Kathy	Abitz	"Fast lanes" would only be a dangerous beginning to other limitations in the future. We need to keep our country from becoming so strongly favoring the elite wealthy and big business.
Christine	Ablan
Paulino	Aboitiz
Agnes	Abola	Please save the Open Internet.
Ashley	Abramson	FCC, Please get out of industry's pockets and into the consumers' pockets where you belong - now.
Colene	Abramson
Fernando	Abrego
Joan	Abruzzo	I definitely do not want a cable company deciding where and how and what I can access online.
Maher	Abunamous
Harry	Aceto
Frank	Ackerman	This should be considered a Common Carrier. Not a corporations private greed source.
Judith	Ackerman
John	Ackerman M.D.	It's imperative in the U.S to continue with free speech and Real Net Neutrality. Respectfully, John M. Ackerman, M.D. Lt. Cmdr. (1968-1970) USPHS (Indian Health Service) Alaska
Diane	Acox
Bev	Actis	Net neutrality is our greatest strength. Don't let it be changed.
Tom	Adams	Don't give a privileged position on our internet to the fat cats.
Evert	Adams	I am an internet user. An open internet is essential for me for business as well as home use.
Ron	Adams	My prayers are you to wake up and be real. And don't fix things that are not broken
Eloise	Adams	Net neutrality will be the fair rule for this extremely important educational tool. Please keep the internet equally accessible to all people.
David	Adams	Please do not allow any kind of preferential or faster access to content on the internet, especially by privately owned telecom and cable companies. This will destroy the equality of access to the internet that has been perhaps its best feature.
Ken	Adams	Please do not vote to allow giant telecom companies have preferential treatment or give it to favored clients or subsidiaries. Keep the internet free and open.
Tonja	Adams	The internet should be a source for FREE discourse and information gathering without special treatment to a few. A Democracy allows for free access to the public and commerce. Lets not put restrictions on our democracy.
April	Adams	The use of the Internet should be for everyone, not a selected few!
David	Adams	There is no need to extend class privilege into the online realm.
Sarah	Adams
Lisa	Adams
Garrett	Adams
John	Adams
Joan	Adams	We are sick of corporate rule - as you may have noticed already.
L.J.	Adams	We need an open internet without special "fast lanes" for large corporate entities... keep the internet for the American people. Thank you

Bill	Adamski	To the FCC: Keep the Internet fully net-neutral. No "fast" for the corporate powers and "slow" lanes for the rest of us in Cyberspace traffic. Our democracy depends on the internet being net neutral. Bill Adamski Minneapolis, MN
Thomas	Adamski
Lorraine	Adan
Sue	Addison	You have the power to keep the internet free & fair. Allowing the telecom companies to create fast lanes for a higher price would discriminate against non-profits and small companies and in turn create censorship of material.
Dalia	Adeina	The internet is the last truly democratic egalitarian space we have left. Large corporations must not be allowed to limit access to those who have less money. FCC must protect all, not only those with $$$$$. "Fast lanes" is akin to payola.
Niame	Adele	Remember that the air waves belong to the people.
Arlene	Adelman
Shari	Adkisson	Keep the internet free please
Janis	Adler	Equal access to the internet has revolutionized the world - created unimagined opportunities to expand education, medicine, art and literature. It's a tool for EVERYONE, not just the richest few. A slower speed is unequal treatment. Don't allow it.
Richard	Adler	In these days where those with the most wealth are advantaged with the most power, it is time for the regulators such as the FCC to invoke equalizers where possible. This is the way of true democracy.
Kenneth	Adler
Hochberg	Adrienne	Don't move the majority of this country's citizens to the "back of the bus.
Linda	Adsit	It is important for the internet to remain open, and be classified as a public utility. Thank you.
Angie	Affolter
alex	afonso
Barbara	Agness
Leroy J	Agsten Jr
Jonci	Aguillard
Rebecca	Aguirre
Jim	Ahearn	Please do the right thing and keep the internet an equally accessible avenue of thought for all.
Patricia	Ahlberg
Tom and Sandy	Ahlstrom	Think about the words: "net neutrality"! We must ALL be equal in our access to the internet! This has been the status of our net and should not be bought by monied interests leaving the rest of us behind!
Lesley	Ahmed	don't allow yourselves to be counted in the # of people/organizations that ruined America. exercise integrity in the moment of choice
Cheryl	Ahuja	Keep the internet free!
Brian	Ainsley
Scott	Ainslie	The internet service providers should be regulated as the common carriers they are. The cowardice of the FCC in the face of Republicans in the House is a disservice to the American people. Net Neutrality is the issue. Leave it alone.
Ross	Aird	internet providers need to be classified as common carriers.
Sarah	Aird	We need net neutrality! In this age, it's essential for our democracy. Please ensure we all enjoy an open internet that does not favor rich corporations. I want the public to have equal access to ev and social information critical to the greater good.
Kenneth	Aizawa	I have been using the internet for academic work for about 20 years. Universities throughout the country do not need more financial challenges, such as competing for bandwidth with large corporations.
Gregory	Akers	To Whom IT May Concern: I feel that Net Neutrality is extremely important, so that the masses may contribute to society and get their voices heard. Most of the major inovation comes from small business and their efforts in advancing technologies.
Henry	Alarie	Sooo mister big wig. Are they paying you off? If so then how much and with what else,stocks??? EVERYONE SHOULD BE TREATED EQUAL
Kamran	Alavi
R.	Albani	ban all fracking
Mike	Albar
Horace	Albaugh
John	Albers	Please support net neutrality. Thank you.
Robert	Albert
Jon	Albertson	I support net neutrality, do not weaken it.
John	Albertson

Paul	Albrecht	Any removal of equal access for everyone to all internet content, by pricing schemes or any other scam, is a fascist censorship effort by the rulership to reduce access to knowledge/info of their criminality. And everyone knows it.
Jay	Albrecht	My internet viewing will suffer too much if it's downspeeded - I vote NO to "fast lanes" for the few, which I don't see anyway!
Gary	Albright	Please protect the open internet.
Margaret	Aldinger	I want to keep my internet without COPOROTOCRACY. Allow the internet to thrive and grow on its own. That is the American Way!
Adrian	Aldrich	Equal access and speed for all users. No special access by selling to the highest bidders!
John	Aldrich
Patricia	aldrich
Arthur	Alenik	The Internet should NOT be 'pay for play'. It is very close to being a public utility, and should not be censored nor biased toward those who can pay for exposure.
Grea	Alexander	Capitalism is great and all. Just not when our regulators and politicians cave to corporate interests.
Mark	Alexander	ISP's should be regulated as common carriers.
S.J.	Alexander	It is essential that you preserve equity on the Internet and not give priority treatment to those with deeper pockets. Nonprofits and others without such deep pockets should not be consigned to slower speeds on the Internet. Thank you!
John	Alexander	Keep the internet the way it is--for the common person. NO fast lanes for powerful business interests.
Rev. Dr. Connie	Alexander	Please don't make it more difficult for little companies to operate!
V	Alexander	The internet must remain a truly free platform for everyone, whether you have $5 or $5 million.
Jonathan	Alexander
Toni	Alexander
Kathryn	Alexander
June	Alexander	You can't take my internet! I want control and no cable or telecom company need apply...EVER...
Donna	Alfaro	We are a democracy, please keep this in mind.
Diana	Alfonso
Barbara	Aliza	Going forward with this proposal would, in effect, interfere with our free speech by allowing faster and more assured access to a few. Access to the internet must be available to all on an equal level.
William	Allan	Please carefully consider the impact of ending net neutrality.
Galloway	Allbright	We have so many big problems coming down the pipe. We are going to need the best minds, the best solutions, the best intentions crashing in to each other with as much frequency as possible. No one person or corporation can be trusted to manage that access
Lynn Hower	Allen	Please do not restrict this most democratic of resources with regulations that favor telecom giants. Preserve Net Neutrality, please.
Dana	Allen	The internet belongs to all of the people on the globe, not just to the rich and connected. We all deserve equal access. The internet should be considered a basic utility, not a corporate owned business. The people demand real net neutrality.
Wendy	Allen
Kathryn	Allen
Charels	Allen
Linda	Allen
Benjamin	Allen
Lynn	Allen	We need local news and weather available on Cable. We also need federal laws that help fund all public radio and television stations. Federal dollars for NPR.
Tami	Allen	We need REAL net neutrality-continued open & equal access to the internet for everyone, not just those who can afford to pay more. Major telecom/cable companies should not be able to control the flow of information that we can see.
Michael	Allison	Everything for those who can pay and nothing for the citizens.
Jim	Allison	Please, not another Government giveaway to Corporate Interests! Think of the American people first...for a change!
Billie	Allor
Beverly	Allphin
Theodore	Almaguer	Do not move forward with the idea of providing fast lanes to the structure of privilege. Ask yourself how providing fast lanes for the wealthy will level the playing field for all?
Gabriel	Almazan
Cory	Alperstein	It is critical to our freedom of access, of speech, of information that the internet remain net neutral. CRITICAL that the FCC act in the interest of people not for profit corporations.
Carolyn	Alter	This is crazy. No one should have preference over the internet.

Marleen	Alter
Ronald	Altic	Please continue REAL net neutrality
Carrie	Altinitop
Dan	Altman	Keep the internet open with even access for all! No favoritism to big corporations!
Dan	Altman	Please support and open and free internet for everyone -- not just large rich corporations! thanks, Dan
Anita	Altman
Jim	Altree	Free Speech?
Joanne	Altschuler	We need to preserve Internet neutrality. Do not allow major companies to take more control.
Angela	Alvarez	Access to a FREE and OPEN INTERNET is imperative for those who value living in the US. We can't call ourselves "the land of the free" if we allow mega-corporations to censor, edit and control the internet. Maintain Net Neutrality!
Choky	Alvarez
Juan	Alvarez
J.	Alvey	The Internet should be kept the way it is. No fast lanes for those that will pay. This will discourage investment in startups and keep our economy from growing the way it should.
Mignon	Alworden	save the internet for the common people.
Mark	Aman	Keep the net neutral. It's the American way...a nation conceived in Liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all are created equal.
Hector R.	Amaro
Marc	Amberson	Why should they get by discriminating against their customers?
Gary	Ameika	The internet is the current replacement for the "press" as in "freedom of the press". It must be free of censorship which would be the result of speed restrictions.
Doddie	Amella
George	Amendola II	I find any control over the internet wrong and a violation of my and all Americans freedom's just
Mason	Amin
Carmel	Ammon-Mulloli
Polly	Amrein	We retired folks with limited incomes NEED the internet to keep us connected to the world
Rolf	Amsler
Karl	Amsler
David	Amundson
Beret	Amundson	We need absolute and total NET NEUTRALITY. Speed and availability should NOT be dependent on your ability to pay.
Elle	Ander
Jon	Anderholm	Absolutely no to a two tier internet....
Dana	Andersen	Do what's right!
Victor	Andersen
Evette	Andersen
Vannessa	Anderson	American is for everyone--not just for Corporations. You were elected to represent the people and not corporations.
Scott	Anderson	Don't sell us out please. Keep the internet and the access to it free, please!
Robert	Anderson	If any of you value freedom, you will vote to keep the net neutral and open equally to all. And you will continue to defend the free American speech it embodies.
Marvin	Anderson	Is the FCC protecting citizens or the big companies that make big campaign contributions?
Bruce	Anderson	Keep the internet equal for ALL
David	Anderson	Keep the net neutral!
Nancy	Anderson	Let the internet be open and free. Please don't give the big telecom companies any more control over what we see and hear!!!
Kim	Anderson	Net neutrality enables us to access content we're interested in without slower lanes, interference from corporate greed and political agendas. Please reclassify broadband as a utility.
Dennis	Anderson	the Internet is for everyone equally, changing that would only increase corporate irresponsibility and infringe on our right to freely explore new ideas and freely disseminate new thoughts, as well as show us who owns the FCC
Jeanne	Anderson	The internet is precious the way it is. It's the only thing left in this country that isn't divided into first and second class, one quality for people who have money and another quality for those who don't. Almost like the vote used to be.
Vic	Anderson	The telecoms are ALREADY fouling up service for bigger profits! Make Them FCC OFF!
Kenneth	Anderson	This service line of information belongs to the people. Do not allow this to be sold to the highest bidder.
Gen	Anderson	This would be seriously handicapp the Mom and Pop businesses and start ups in this country!
David	Anderson	Two words: Common Carrier
Leonard	Anderson

Robert	Anderson
Dee	Anderson
Marilyn	Anderson
Chad	Anderson
William	Anderson
Gray	Anderson
Brian	Anderson
Joan	Anderson
Dave	Anderson
Jo Ann	Anderson	We need real net neutrality. Having no internet, information, access for less economically fortunate is unacceptable. The net needs to be a 21st century's Carnegie Library, accessible to all.
Karen	Anderson	We need true net neutrality in this country. There shouldn't be different tracts for those with more money.
Elmer	Anderson Jr.	Leave well enough alone; do not allow the Corporatization of Broadband Internet services. Everyone needs Information, not just the Rich and Entitled!!! Can we keep this Playing field Level????
Paul	Andrade
Steve	Andreas
Norma	Andres	There is only so much bandwidth and it needs to be shared equitably with all. Big Money should not (although it almost always does) get more than the little guy of Internet traffic.
Barbara	Andrew	Any dis-equilibrium and inequality of the internet will result in a massive move away from health for the people of the planet.
MaryJo	Andrews	As a retired person and frequent user of my home computer, I am very concerned about this threat to net neutrality.
Ardie	Andrews	Enough! Faster Internet access for the few just compounds even greater inequity for all.
Wayne	Andrews	I pay enough for the use of the internet. This will only add more expense.
Hilda	Andrews
Laura	Andrews
Fred	andrews
Sperry	Andrews	We have had "Net-Neutrality" and it has worked well for everyone. We are counting on YOU at the FCC - to protect the majority of us from the minority of wealthy powerful vested interests. Do NOT sell-us Out.
Charles	Andros
J	Angell	Not preserving net neutrality could harm students and research in addition to potentially killing persons with disabilities and seniors who use it to communicate with their health professionals, including uploading medical data, etc.
Valerie	Angeloro	An open internet, one regulated as a utility, is clearly the way to preserve our democracy, allowing for free flow of ideas, communication and speech,and allowing equal access for all.
Billy	Angus	We want REAL internet neutrality... Not a load of sugar-coated spins and stupid political shell games. Listen to We, The People and stop pandering to the greedy corporate mafia!!
pedro	anillo guevara	FCC, Stop being a puppet for fascist, police state amerika!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Marcia	Annenberg	Equal access to the internet is imperative!
William	Annett	The Internet should be treated like a public utility with open and equal access for all. The FCC's current plan will turn it into a divided platform that benefits the super wealthy at the expense of everyone else. The Internet MUST remain open and free.
Sophia	Anon
	Anonymous	At a time when democratic ideas are being challenged on so many fronts, it is a shame that the FCC might further divide Americans into the haves and have-nots by destroying net neutrality.
	Anonymous	Don't forget about the little guy who will be affected.
	Anonymous	Don't let income determine access to our internet.
	Anonymous	I am tired of corporate profits trumping the public good. I don't want some giant telecommunications company deciding how fast I can my internet content.
	Anonymous	I urge you to keep the internet open & neutral for all users. The designation as a public utility would be a good choice. Thank You Steven H Smith
	Anonymous	If the plan to allow fast lanes for the few goes forward, the rest of us will suffer. The deep-pocketed will pay to move their content at top speed, leaving nonprofit, independent and dissenting voices in the slow lane. Please preserve net neutrality!
	Anonymous	Maintain net neutrality
	Anonymous	NO!! NO!! NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!! WHAT MORE NEED I SAY BUT NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!NO!!

	Anonymous	Perhaps you're planning to stay in your cushy job forever and are very confident you'll never be relegated to the slow lane. I wouldn't bet on it if I were you. Dividing the Internet would be a national disaster that would also affect you. Don't do it.
	Anonymous	Please do not even consider allowing "Fast Lanes" for the Internet. It would open the door to monopolies and added cost to all users of the Internet.
	Anonymous	Please give regular people real net neutrality by not allowing some phone companies to provide fast track access to the internet to big corporations. Thank you.
	Anonymous	Please keep the Internet an equal playing field for all.
	Anonymous	Please, no special fast lanes on the internet. Treat all messages in the same manner.
	Anonymous	Selling the internet to corporate America?!? You can't be serious!
	Anonymous	Television and radio are dominated by the wealthy and powerful media giants. Please do not allow the same thing to happen to the Internet. Every user, no matter how small, should have the same access to the public bandwidth.
	Anonymous	The FCC needs to safeguard the public trust & Information Commons that is the birthright of every American -- according to the founding democratic principles of America. Net Neutrality now! Internet as public utility!
	Anonymous	The Internet is the world's Freedom of the Press. Don't let it be taken over by mere dollars. Leave it to the people who create and maintain it. If large providers want a piece . . . have them install the fiber optics they promised so long ago.
	Anonymous	This is important. Save REAL Net Neutrality

	Anonymous	We need real net neutrality. Not preferred treatment for large corporations and those who have money to buy all the fast connections. Don't make a law which further enhances the great income divide in America.
	Anonymous	We need REAL network neutrality.
	Anonymous	We need the FCC to protect the American public's equal access to information; freedom of speech and freedom of the 'press' are vital to a healthy democracy. Don't allow big money to control online content at top speed.
	Anonymous	Why should the wealthy gain yet another perk at the expense of all the rest of us??? We are already burdened financially and now you want to mess with one of the affordable simple pleasures. Please consider what is best for everyone!!
Shirley	Anstaett	I am a small business owner/sole proprietor. I need fair access to fast internet to manage most. business operations. I would not be able to compete without it.
Ferris	Anthony	Stop Time Warner and Verizon, are you nuts?
Stephanie	Aoki
Daniela	Apostol	This would be the destruction of democracy and of the free market.
Rick	Appleby
Marylucia	Arace
Fiana	Arbab	Keep the Internet equal!
Audrye	Arbe	The internet has to be a level playing field for all of us, whatever our size. Reject fast and slow lanes. Thank you very much.
Micki	Archuleta	Don't do this. You'll be trammeling on the free speech of the little guy.
Paula	Archer	Keep the Internet free the way it was designed to be and for all the people not a select rich few.
Donald	Archer	The internet, like the airwaves, are OUR COMMONS. As a society, we have created the internet and public, UNRESTRICTED access must be maintained. Representing the public interest first and foremost, not private profit, is the responsibility of the FCC.
Patricia	Archuleta
Annette	Argyros	Please keep the Internet a democratic communication method by not allowing "fast lanes" for the rich. The Internet is the great equalizer for the common person. Continue to let the people have equality with the big guys.
Carroll	Arkema
Barbara	Arlen	net neutrality NOW!
	arlenekoncay
Martha	Armas	This is our First Amendment Right.

Joan	Armer	NO preferences for those with extra money for high speed, please. This is democracy, not a bank.
Salme	Armijo	The internet should not be only for the powerful and wealthy. We need real net neutrality now.
Ron	Armillei	Big business must not continue to run our country. Net neutrality is mandatory in a democracy.
Susan	Armistead M.D.	A healthy democracy needs unfettered communication and an informed electorate, open discussions of issues and access to all scientific studies.
Kevin	Armitage	I demand real, open net neutrality.
Sydney	Armstrong	I am an Internet user who has a blog and I have friends who have blogs and write and speak out on a regular basis. We want an Internet where our voices can really be heard and not relegated to the bottom tier by the big telecom and cable companies.
Mary-Jo	Arn	Telecom and cable companies have no right to any kind of control of the internet. There is nothing "open" about big business, and open is what the internet is all about.
Anthony	Arn
Dolores	Arndt	Please keep the internet free to all, not just a few
Evelyn Joy	Arnold	Doing this would be such a blatant attack against people who want us to build a democracy. Stop it!
Judy	Arnold	Don't give big money interests this opportunity to get their message out at the expense of other people's ability to communicate. Treat all equally on the net.
Judy	Arnow
Robert	Aronin
Eleanor	Arons
Greg	Arsenault
Jos?â??	Artigas
Alice	Artzt	Keep the internet free and fair.
Vinu	Arumugham
Michael	Arveson
Michael	Arvey	Net neutrality please without corporate influence.
Sheila	Ary	Please, FCC, we need real net neutrality confirmed as soon as possible. What we do not need is discriminatory two-tier pricing leading to two tiers of service. Please see that all customers are treated equally in terms of both service and pricing.
Sylvia	Ashby	Slow down on fast lane for the corporations. Not right.
Jody	Ashenurst
Jude	Asphar	lets just raise the inequality stakes a little higher, eh, FCC? Net neutrality is one thing that could help re-balance our already lopsided world. Verizon and others paying no taxes -- that's not enough for them? They need more pounds of flesh?
helen	assatourian	we don't want telecom & cable companies have more control over what we see on line. They already have control over our pockets; don't give them any more.
Laurie	Assid
Jan	Aszman	It's time to step up and do the RIGHT thing and not let corporations rule the Internet. You, after all, are meant to be the watchdog for the public domain.
Marina	Atchison	Enough of control, save Internet
Carol	Atkins	Freedom of speech is not a commodity to be sold to the highest bidder.
Tom	Atkins	The Internet showed me level, do your job and keep it that way!
Kenneth	Atkinson

Jay	Atkinson
Wendy	Atmore
Russell	Attoe	Equal rights on the internet.
Bob	Atwood
Bettie	Auble
Ray	Aubrey	Leave the Internet totally independent of any and all Federal regulations!!
David	Audette	The internet does not belong to anyone, and should not favor anyone.
Susan	Augeri	Only with Real Net Neutrality can we maintain a healthy republic. It's time for the rules of "corporatocracy" to end, a time for humans to have a seat at the negotiation tables!
Keith	Augusto
Carol	Auld	The 1% just keep seeking more and more power. Sure doesn't feel like a democracy anymore. The airwaves belong to all of us. Business isn't more important than all of us. NO FAIR!
Rick	Auman
H. B.	Auslander
Marilyn	Austin	information is power, for the people The internet is power for the people. Don't restrict it.
Martha	Austin
Howard	Austin

A.J.	Averett	Irrespective of what five hard-right ideologues of the SCOTUS may have decreed, corporations are manifestly NOT people. If the FCC destroys net neutrality in order to enrich the bottom lines of its corporate masters, then it WILL reap the whirlwind.
Antonio	Aversano	Do not let this corporate takeover of the internet happen under our watch. The internet is FREE for All!
Thomas	Avery
Roberta	Avidor
Miguel Andres	Avila	Major telecom and cable companies are seeking unprecedented control over what I can see and say online. I'm totally against this action.
Dale	Axelrod
Benjamin	Axt	Anything that divides the access and/or speed of internet service for a fee is not keeping the Net neutral. It's giving those who can pay another advantage over the rest of us. That is not democratic, it is not what the internet should be.
Elizabeth	Axtell	No fast lanes for the few.
E. Daniel	Ayres	I worked on AREA NET back in the day. Preserve the fundamental assumption of the design for peer host communication. Anything else is picking winners and loser based on ability to pay.
r	b

Barbara	Babor
Robert	Babson	We are all equal according to the 14th amendment. So please the keep the internet speed equal for all - No "fast" lanes.
Linda	Bach
Sharon	Bach
Gilbert	Bachman
Connie	Back	The internet is how modern America communicates, and our communication should not be hindered by someone else's business interest. Keep the net free and open!
Barbara	Bacon	The United States already has one of the slowest Internet speeds in the world, and yet we pay one of the highest fees for Internet service. Now you're going to give these large corporations EVEN MORE CONTROL over the Internet?
Larry	Bader	We need REAL net neutrality.
Giliane	Bader-Wechseler	We need REAL net neutrality!. Giving control to cable companies will create an unbalance that will not only slow down the net for us but will have dangerous and unforeseen economical consequences.. Do not open that door...
Terry	Badger	The internet was invented and developed by DARPA which is a federally funded agency using our tax dollars. The government should never have let the carriers run it. They certainly don't deserve control over it, but only make a reasonable amount.
Carol	Badran
Yasmine	Baeringer
Dave	Bagby	Please don't take away what we have.
Elizabeth	Bagi	The major telecom and cable companies have not had in the past and cannot be trusted to have the interest of the individual in mind in the future.
Sidne	Baglini	No fast lanes on the Internet. Protect Net Neutrality for all users!
Lynda	Bagot-Parker	HEAR ME & HEAR ME LOUDLY, I, am a registered voter born in the USA & living within the USA AND I OPPOSE anything but complete net neutrality! Please & thank you.
Marian	Bailey	One of the most remarkable developments of the last few decades is that the internet has been available to the ordinary citizens of the world, not just corporations and the very rich. Let us keep it very democratic.
Barbara	Bailey	Protect net neutrality!
Charmaine	Bailey
Terry	Bailey	We've witnessed the death of the democratizing potential of every medium invented: the radio, movies, TV. All because those with deep pockets were allowed more access and control. The hope for the Internet dies if fast lanes are allowed for the rich. No.
Lee	Baileyl	Free speech not for sale
Jean	Bails
Jean	Bails
Matthew	Bain	An Internet without neutrality would stifle creativity and lock us in with only the current big players to choose from
Stephanie	Bair	There needs to be a level playing field regarding internet usage. The internet must be open to everyone at every speed. Internet neutrality is THE way, the only way..
Barbara	Baird	The great virtue of the internet is that no one controls its content. It has been a technologically successful, democratic forum. ISPs should not have market power to eviscerate the egalitarian ethic of the internet for corporate profit.

Richard Ly	Baird Bajec	You be darned careful what you come up with in this arena. You are speaking of the only truly equal arena in which the US citizens still have an equal shot at policy making. Don't let money overrule equality. Net neutrality must remain.
Vanessa	Baker	AS far as I know, the internet was made possible because of the government and like TV and radio it should not be controlled by one source. It belongs to everyone.
Henry	Baker	Do not sell the web, public entities are goog
Elizabeth	Baker	Equal playing fields for all..not just the rich!
James	Baker	If the FCC's plan to allow fast lanes for the few goes forward, the rest of us will suffer. The deep-pocketed will pay to move their online content at top speed, consigning nonprofit, independent and dissenting voices to the slow lane.
Maria	Baker	The general public should not have to fight so hard for what is fair. Please do not allow the big businesses to take over the internet and make all of us suffer-in our pockets.
Debby	Baker
Arlene	Baker
Salena	Baker
Arnold	Baker
Fatima	Baker
Vickey	Baker
Deborah	Baker
Grant	Bakewell	Democracy means fair and equal access to the internet and all public communication channels. Please uphold democracy. Thank you!
Dwight	Bakker	Keep the internet free of government and UN control.
Theresa	Bakko
Nancy	Balasubramanian	Equality encompasses many things -- including equal access to information, programming, social media, etc. Net neutrality matters! Please protect it!
Barbara	Balch
James	Balder	Real democracy and equal opportunity for all citizens includes unrestricted internet. Please keep fair game rules for all citizens. Thank you for your attention, James Balder Freeland MD 21053
Daniel	Baldonado	Please keep the internet open and neural to all users and all content.
Jane	Baldwin	All voices should be heard in a timely manner. It shouldn't depend on deep-pocketed special interests. Keep this decision rooted in our democracy.
Sharon	Baldwin	Please keep the internet as it is. Thank you.
Julie	Baldwin
Patricia	Baley	FCC, protect freedom on the internet. Don't sell it out to corporations and special interests.
Elaine	Balgemann	FCC Only you can keep our internet open as a free service to the millions of people communicating on it, for business, personal use, and each other, daily. YOU MUST KEEP OUR INTERNET "NEUTRAL FOR EVERYONE."
Stephen	Ball	Right now the internet is completely democratic; everyone is equal. Don't ruin, don't even damage, this wonderful operation.
Richard	Ball	The internet should remain available to all on an equal basis. Richard Ball

Riccardo-Zoran	Balmas
John	Balonis	For once why can't you people try to do your job & work to protect & serve the American public for which you are being paid very well to do.
Brian	Baltin
John	Balza	I oppose the proposal to end net neutrality by selling fast lanes to those willing to pay. This will stifle innovation by the small companies by giving a competitive advantage to the large companies.
Margaret	Banazek	We need free and open internet with equal access for all players.
Mary Jo	Banks	Big Brother..... NO!
Patricia	Bannerman
Stan	Banos
Robert	Banov
Michael	Banyacki	It's not fair to the consumer to allow Major telecom and cable companies who are seeking unprecedented control over what you can see and say online. Lets not let this happen!!! It's wrong headed...

Al	Banys	The internet should be an interstate highway, not for the highest bidder, a conduit that is content neutral, free of manipulation by money.
John	Barack
Janet	Barad
Cathy	Barash
Alex	Barber
Deborah	Barber
Robert	Barger	I oppose giving fast lanes to major telecom and cable companies,
Don	Barletta	No fast lanes. None. Nada. Zip. Zilch. NO fast lanes. Capich?
Jeffrey	Barlow	The FCC has a responsibility to support innovation and free speech, both of which will be immeasurably damaged by "fast lanes". The goals of Comcast, Verizon and AT&T should never be the goals of the FCC.
Robert	Barnard	Leave the internet alone!
Anthony	Barnard	Let's keep an open Internet in order to serve all.
Mark	Barnea	It is critically important that the FCC preserve net neutrality and not allow paid fast lanes.
Mercedes	Barnek	Once again, it is coming to down to who has the most money. Access to the internet should not be sold as a commodity and we should all have equal access.
David	Barnes	Same speed for all gives users the power and equality needed to protect content fairness. Give away this power to large corporations and you give them complete control over every other user except for them. Think of innovative damage you will cause
Brooks	Barnes
Michael	Barnes
Richard	Barnes
Richard	Barnes	Yes, we need real net neutrality.
Candice	Barnett
Maurice	Barnett	Why penalize the small guy.
Deborah	Barolsky
Ronna	Baron
Luz	Barona
Alva	Barozzi	Fast lanes will reward large corporations and punish us individuals as well as non-profits. This must stop! We need true net neutrality.
Bruce	Barr	Ending Net Neutrality is a slap in the face to the millions of taxpayers who have paid for the development of the internet. It should be classified as a public utility.
Diana	Barrera	Stop the madness of controlling the internet. Other countries do not have these issues. We will become second rate and less creative and productive, if equal access is taken away.
Domingo	Barreres
Millie	Barrett	Do the right thing for the people and small business. The last thing we need is more power for big corporations.
John	Barrett	Please, please keep open the cable internet. Why should corporations have better access than individuals
Jack	Barrett
Phil	Barrett
Carolyn	Barrett
Joanne	Barrett
Henry	Barrett	You're the only agency between us ( the people) and them (special interest), you work for us, I hope. Do your job and protect our interest, we don't have anyone else.
Robert	Barricklow	"A Bought & Sold Government Is Worthless". - Alexander Hamilton.
Janine	Barringer	We need to at least TRY to slow down all this corporate greed!!!
Mario	Barrios	please keep the internet open free and uncontrolled by telecom providers. thank you. mario barrios
Catherine	Barry	don't be evil!
Michel	Barry	Please keep the Internet FREE. Stop allowing Corporations to set policy that destroys the common good at the expense of profits. Please support the Citizens of the United States and not Corporations.
Deborah	Barry
Claire	Barta	Net neutrality is central to a functioning, educated citizenry. That means that you can declare the Internet carriers as Common carriers just like an electric or water line. Thank you. Do the right thing for democracy!
Joyce	Bartels
Lewis	Barth	Net neutrality is like the highway system: everybody gets to ride on it. Keep it that way. The internet has been an unbelievable boon to everyone, equally. There is no good reason for that to stop.

Cheryl	Barthell	Some of you may think that competition will not be affected by allowing this -and maybe it won't. But, there are many actions that affect consumer costs. This is not moving in the direction of strengthening a free market for middle class Americans.
Angela	Barton	Net Neutrality for all !!!!!
Janet	Bartos	We must keep the internet as open as it can be. Not gobbled up by a couple of mega corporations where they make the rules!
Stacey	Basile
Ben	Baskett	We as a nation need neutrality in order to function as a free and democratic society. Open and unhindered access to the internet is a right in our modern age and should not be restricted by the needs of a few telecommunication companies.
Sue	Bassett	Please act in best interest of the common people like me, not for the wealthy.
Lia	Bassin	this is bad for small businesses and innovation. and it violates a general ethical and moral standard of fairness. the internet is not a place that should be made to mirror the terrible income divide that is crippling the USA
Susan	Bassin
Jon	Bassinger-Flores
Cathlee N	Bataille	I DO NOT APPRECIATE BEING TREATED LIKE A SECOND CLASS CITIZEN.
Bill	Bateman	It is my understanding the FCC is not an elected body of persons. Please consider your friends and neighbors and the long term impact of this decision. Thank you

Connie M	Bauer	The net is free...should remain free... We will NOT allow a take over of our freedom....
M.	Bauguess	THE INTERNET SHOULD BE KEPT FREE FOR ALL ! Most people already pay the cable & telecom companies too darn much for our tv, phones & internet as it is
Alan	Baum	It would be very refreshing if for once the will of the people were to be done rather than the bidding of the wealthy, powerful interests who so dominate our country's politics. Show some courage and maintain net neutrality. We'll be grateful.
Rhona	Baum
Charles	Baumgartener	PLEASE do not let the corporate interests take further control over Telecommunications that create monopolistic behaviors and higher prices. The FCC has the right to regulate the Internet, it's a telecommunications utility not a POWER utility.
Walter	Baumhoff
Mark	Bax	As a small business owner that does not have a big budget, a tiered internet will put me at a competitive disadvantage because I could not afford the "fast lane" It's simple - a tiered internet will stifle competition and innovation. Period.
Lavon	Bayler	The internet should be free to ALL Equally.
Katy	Bayly
Cynthia	Bayne
Eric	Bayon
Jon	Bazinet
Carole	Beadle	Keep the internet as it is--FAIR USE for everyone. Stop considering the wealthy who can afford anything and deprive the less wealthy of second class service. Let's keep America FAIR...at least in this area of internet service.
Richard	Beal
Thomas	Beals	We need Net Neutrality , Monoplozation of the Net
Debra	Bean	The internet is the last bastion of free speech and democracy for ALL OF US! Do not let these greedy corporations ruin the purest form of free speech that we have left!
Donald	Bean
Irene	Bean	We gave up our airwaves and now we have reality shows and news that is masked in entertainment. Without an open internet how we supposed to learn about all that is going on in the world, not just what one side wants us to know?
Ann	Beane
Greg	Beard	I support net neutrality. Let's not let that slip away.
Marley	Beard	Please protect internet use by all and insure that control is not siphoned off to corporate interests.
Nicole	Bearden	The FCCs refusal thus far to limit the power of corporations over free flow of information is harmful and a clear preference for big business over citizens of the United States.
Ava	Beath	Keep the internet open to all.
Mary	Beattie	Corporations don't count more than we the people when it comes to internet service.

Evan	Beattie	Everyone should have equal access to the internet. I reject a tiered system where some get better service - for a fee.
Arleen	Beaty
Robert	Beauchamp
Aldor	Beauregard
Nancy	Beavers	It is unpatriotic to gift major telecom and cable companies control over what can be seen and said online. Fast lanes will leave the rest of us at the curb.
Ree	Bebetu	Time Warner and Verizon already do enough dictating about what consumers can see and do. Why give dictators more power than they already have? All lanes should be open to all users.
Alan	Beck	The FCC is supposed to defend the people from the greedy moneyed interests of the large companies NOT facilitate that greed. The FCC is supposed to ensure EQUAL ACCESS to the internet NOT advance the greedy interests of the corporate world.
Mike	Beck	We need net neutrality!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
Douglas	Beck	You are being deceived by greedy corporate interests - - whose only interest is in getting more money! Surely you are a bit (a tiny bit, naturally) more perceptive than the other members of our duly elected government! Save the Internet!
Richard C.	Beck Iii	The United States of America, Land of the Free forever. That is what we have fought for, and died for.
Kenneth	Becker	Do Not Segregate The Internet!!!
Bert	Becker	The internet should be the same access and service for both large & small, rich or poor.
Dr. Lucille	Becker
Bob	Becker	We need true net neutrality. Big business controls enough of our lives already and needs no other way to get into our pocketbooks.
Dave	Beckett	PLEASE keep the Net neutral for all people - PEOPLE, not corporations. "We the people" NOT "We the corporations"
Marie	Beckham
Raymond	Beckler
Mark	Beckwith
Robert	Bedore	stop special treatment for corporations that demand better speed than the ordinary taxpayer!!
Sandra	Beebe	This is totally unfair.
Kevin	Beel
Susan	Beers	Keep the internet open; we need REAL net neutrality!
S. A.	Beers
Steven	Behrendt
Carla	Behrens	Keep the internet open...give us real net neutrality...why are you trying to sell a public facility to the highest bidder? That is ANTI-DEMOCRATIC!!!!!!
Malia	Beidel	This is one of the dumbest ideas I have heard anyone come up with yet. What will be gained in doing this? Stop trying to control and suppress people. God is certainly watching. It is going to be a great show to watch on THAT Day!! Whoo!! WWJD??
Barbara	Beierl
John	Belanger	Please don't let these unregulated corp. control the internet.
Frank	Belcastro	We need REAL net neutrality--not the fast lanes for the few to go forward while the rest of us will suffer.
Ron	Beldon
Elizabeth	Belfiore
Harriet	Belkin	I thought this was a democracy.
Clare	Bell	A two-tiered Internet would be a real blow to dissidents, non-profits, and independents. It would reinforce corporate domination of the Internet. Please do not let this happen.
Jeffrey	Bell	Don't sell out the US consumer. The contemplated change will only cost users more.
James	Bell	If you folks at FCC care at all about the future of America then catering to the corporate powers is like putting a gag order on the general population. Unless you people are not against FREEDOM then please stop catering to the corporate powers! Please!!
Jim	Bell
Frank	Bell
Wauneta	Bell	We need real net neutrality not only for the wealthy.
Susan Bella-Howland	Bella-Howland	Keep our civil liberty to free speech free and open!! We no longer have to stand on a street corner to address our opions like our forefathers. The internet is our technological "street" to express our opinions. Keep it open and free!!
Ray	Bellamy	Just a question: Do ALL decisions of government have to provide advantage to corporations and trample on citizens?

Gil	Belles	The amazing and positive changes in American life over the last 30 years can be in part attributable to the OPEN, FAIR, and EQUITABLE internet. Please do not allow speed and access to be sold to big money corporations. Preserve the OPEN INTERNET!!
Kai	Bello	Please do not allow fast lanes for the elite corporate few because the rest of us average folk will suffer. The deep-pocketed will be able to pay for top speed while the nonprofit/independent/dissenting few will be relegated to the slow lane! Unfair!!!
Steve	Belosi	The Internet is for people keep it that way. We have been taken enough, keep the greedy $$$ hands off.
Michael	Beltran
Daniel	Beltran
Matt	Bender	Dear FCC please leave the internet alone. don't sell us out the the Corporations leave net neutrality alone. let every one have the open internet all 100% of us. not just the 1 or 2% please if you care about people like me thank you
JACK	Bender	My service is slow enough already being in the country. Please do not do anything that will make the service less than it is already. Thanking you in advance I am sincerely yours. Col. Jack Bender
Nancy	Bender
Marie	Bender-Muir
Robin	Bendler	as far as I know, we the people own the internet and airwaves. you exist to protect our interests. have you no shame?
Lyla	Bendsen	Don't join the Supreme Court on the side of big business. The people need the FCC to support internet equality. Please!
Louis	Benedict	We need real net neutrality and equal access for all, especially the public and not favor those with more money.
Michelle	Benes	The internet is part of the fabric of life in the U.S. and globally. It is functionally a utility and should be regulated as one. The 2-tier proposal is a class discrimination against small businesses, the self-employed and non-corporate Americans.
Furlo	Bengtsson	Not that it matters to you, but we the people are tired of corporate America being put above the common good of every day citizens.
Jeanne	Benioff
Rebecah	Benjamin
Virginia H.	Bennett	I am an underpaid Associate Professor & use the internet all the time. I can ill afford to fill the already bulging coffers of the big internet suppliers!!
Walker	Bennett	Like any common carrier, the Internet exists for the public interest, convenience and necessity.
Robert	Bennett	The development and evolution of the internet was and is one of the strongest instrument for democracy world-wide. Our tax dollars paid for it, it is not for sale and not for taking.
Ralph	Bennett	The internet has been the most significant advancement in communication in our time. Limiting its accessibility to the less fortunate is another swipe at the viability of those who are less privileged. Do not create another obstacle to those among us.
David	Bennett
Kate	Bennett
Henry	Bennett	You must not permit the big telecom companies to discriminate against the everyday users of the Internet like myself. We have ALREADY made their huge profits possible and we should not be forced to a slow lane on the Internet just so they can get richer.
Reitha	Benning	Please maintain true net neutrality for all. Do not allow telecom and cable companies special privileges. Your duty is to the general public.
Beth	Bennion
Steve	Bennyhoff	Keep the internet open to everyone with the same access and speed. Resist the temptation of big moneyed corporations to change the rules.
Ken	Benoit	Let's keep the Internet neutral!
Robin	Ben-Shimeon
Sonja	Benson	I'm just perplexed as to when the business giants earned the right to put other people out of business! There are tons of small business owners whose business operates online. We can't compete or afford to pay "fast lane" fees! Enough!
Susan	Benson
Mike	Benson
Sara	Benson
Joel	Benth	Keep the internet free. Do Not let any company or entity have the ability to divide it into fast and slow lanes!
Michael	Bentley
Kathleen	Bentley
Beverly	Bentley

Barry	Benton	Keep the Internet a public domain and foster Internet equality. That's what is good for the average American and that is who the FCC commissioners are supposed to be representing, not some corporate entity they'll seek a job with later.
Rosalie`	Benton	Since her inception, America has stood for EQUALITY. We rely on the FCC. We don't want FAST LANES for THE FEW. Please take a stand for ALL Americans, not big money corporations! We NEED to believe in you and fairness again.
Eleanor	Beram
Laura	Berben	I think this control is already in place! Stop Corporate pandering!
Melanie	Berdofo	I strongly support an open internet. I support the reclassification of internet/broadband to make it a public utility. The small business I work for depends the level playing field of an open internet.
Nick	Berezansky
Bruce	Berg	Do not let "fast lanes" for the few go forward. We need real net neutrality for all.
David	Berg
Helen	Berger
Michael	Berger	Vote for the American consumer!
Terry	Bergeron	We need real net neutrality to maintain a free society
Joe	Bergholm
Tanya	Bergstrom
Cynthia	Berk	Keep the internet free
Mary	Berkenkamp
Seth	Berkman
Vicki	Berkofsky
Carol	Berkowicz
Stan	Berkowitz	leave the [people's] airwaves the way they are. For all, not just the highest bidder.
David	Berkshire	Screw folks who just want to make money at the expense of others rights.
Diane	Berliner
Uma	Berliner
Bob	Berman	Do not let corporate interest override public interests. Maintain net neutrality.
Bessy	Berman	further separation of the haves and have nots is unconscionable. we need more social justice in the world and especially in this country. keep the internet open to everyone at low prices. equality for all.
Jessica	Berman	Net neutrality is fair, correct, moral, and it levels the new, vast playing field in American life - the Internet. Please try to put American citizens before profit for the relatively few corporate officers + shareholders pursuing net monopolization.
N	Berman	This is a terrible, un AmericanThe internet The internet is used by everyone for communicating, learning and expressing our opinion..We cannot allow the big companies to turn it into a cash cow for them at the expense of limiting our access
Julian	Berman
Sylvia	Berman
Stephen	Bernal	An open, neutral and equal internet is essential to everyone in this day and age, and will probably become even more so in the future. Do not allow companies to limit or give special priority to certain kinds of data over their networks.
Mark	Bernard
Ric	Bernat	Real net neutrality is the single most important pillar supporting our democracy. The corporate-controlled faux net neutrality proposed by Chairman Wheeler will destroy this pillar and cause untold damage to our democracy. Please do the right thing!
Eric	Bernhard	A unrestricted, free internet is the antidote for tyranny.
Robert	Bernhard	The public will be the losers if you permit the purchase of a "fast lane" by a few huge corporations.
Susan	Bernofsky	Given the increased domination of the U.S. news media by corporate interests, it is crucial that the internet remain a truly democratic means of sharing information. Ending net neutrality would destroy the free flow of information forever.
Denny	Bernsmeier
Barbara	Bernstein	Please keep the internet as open as it is now.
Laura Ann K	Bernstein
Peter	Berquist	I urge you to maintain a free and open Internet. Anything less is unacceptable in a democratic society.
Linda	Berry	Some things should not be for sale, like net neutrality. Corporations have enough advantages without selling the internet to the highest bidder. We need to keep one thing democratic!
Janet	Berry
Linda	Berry
Viktor	Berry	We need REAL net neutrality and you have the chance to decide the future of the Internet. Please listen to real people and not corporations!

William	Bertolette	As a history scholar, the idea of a 2-tier internet appalls me. The cable and telecom companies should be required to provide an open road, that is access to all sources of information and entertainment. They are virtual monopolies as content providers.
Linda	Bessom	The profit motive that favors large corporations with "fast lanes" is grossly unfair and will make the rich only richer. I am also against telecom and cable companies gaining unprecedented control over what consumers can see and say online.
Nancy	Best
Barbara	Best	We need REAL net neutrality, not fast lanes for the few. The response I got from the FCC the first time I wrote was obfuscation of what was being proposed by the major telecom & cable companies along with the FCC. It should be a utility for citizens
Ryan	Bettilyon	I urge you to disallow the creation of internet fast lanes. The internet must continue to be a free, transparent, and open source of information. Fast lanes can lead to what amounts to corporate sponsored censorship.
Oscar	Betts
Robert	Beverly	If the FCC's plan to allow fast lanes for the few goes forward, the rest of us will suffer. The deep-pocketed will pay to move their online content at top speed, consigning nonprofit, independent and dissenting voices to the slow lane. Censorship.
Joe	Beverly
Janice	Bewley
Tamiko	Beyer
Patricia	Beyers
Laurel	Beyrer
Lisa	Beyrle
Guy	Biagiotti	Major Internet. telecom and cable companies are seeking unprecedented control If fast lanes for the few goes forward, the rest of us will suffer.
Paul	Bianchi	This is not what the internet is all about. It is wrong and dangerous.
robert	bibb	Ladies and Gentlemen I work for one of the major providers of internet services and I say that a free and open internet is essential. In spite of these companies threats they will not walk away from such a cash cow.yes to net neutrality.
Donney	Bibb
Marcia	Bickmore
Frances	Bicknell	Keep the internet free and democratic!
Tom	Biderman
Joseph	Bieliunas
Michael	Bien	As a branch of the political body of this democracy called The United States, the FCC has a timely responsibility to preserve and protect that democracy, which has become more and more undermined- if not overthrown- by extreme wealth and power. DO IT!
Debbie	Biere	We cannot let huge companies take more control of our lives. Once those big corporations take further control of our communications, who knows what will happen. It won't be good.
Jerry	Bierens
Keith	Biever
Annette	Bigler	Whatever happened to anti-trust laws.? Competition helps quality. Mega businesses stinks.
Maureen	Bike
Gary	Binderim
Perminder	Bindra
Gretchen	Bingea
Lynn	Binnie	Please ensure that we continue to have real net neutrality. Allowing companies to charge a premium for "fast lanes" will consign nonprofit, independent and dissenting voices to the slow lane.
T David	Binns	internet companies already take advantage of their customers. no need to make it worse
Marjorie	Birch	When is the consumer EVER going to be pro- tected? We are now an oligarchy with no one to stop the corporations. The FCC is a government department paid by our tax dollars, not by cor- porations. We will not give fighting for net neutrality.
Amy	Birchler	Please protect net neutrality. All people should have the same access to the best internet without corporate control.
Diane	Birmingham	This is the last bastion of freedom from corporate manipulation and propaganda, please don't take it away!!
Arthur	Birnbaum	Elections are now for sale, the rich are the only voices that really count, and with the end to an open Internet, their coup will be complete.
Karen	Bishop
Damon	Bishop	We want a government of, for, and by the people. A free and open internet, unhindered by corporate influence, is key to democracy's success.

Jeffery	Biss	Classify ISPs correctly, they are common carriers.
Janeen	Bjork	Please don't lay over a play dead to mega-companies, be they internet providers, cable companies or broadcasters. We need real net neutrality. And the service that Comcast and Time Warner provides is bad enough separately, don't let them merge. Thanks.
Laurie	Black	Everyone deserves an equal voice - if the FCC allows corporate control over the internet the deep-pocketed will pay to move their online content at top speed, consigning nonprofit, independent and dissenting voices to the slow lane.
James	Black	I am retired and weary of the obvious that I have seen people act as if they were born under a cabbage patch yesterday. This is particularly true of people who vote or support The party of NO's agenda. We have a recognized right to our pursuit of joy.
Gerald	Black	Keep the internet free and equal for all!
Bruce	Black	The net has long been a bastion of freedom and innovation. Changing the rules of it's current use wull destroy that and the flexibility of the net.
Perry	Black	True democracy needs to provide equal access to communication without restriction based on ability to pay.
B. R.	Black	KEEP THE INTERNET FREE FOR ALL!
Simon	Black
Karina	Black
Bruce	Blacknight
Linda	Blackwell	Keep it equal.
Horace	Blair	Keep the internet open and do not sell lanes.
Jeffrey	Blair	This is utterly ridiculous. STOP FAVORING THE CORPORATE GIANTS!! You work FOR THE PEOPLE!!!
Colin	Blair
Arthur	Blake	Please keep the internet neural, it should not be up to the provider to decide what we can see on the internet.
Richard	Blake	The internet is a PUBLIC UTILITY, NOT MERELY JUST ANOTHER SOURCE OF PROFITS FOR THE TELECOM CORPORATIONS.
Sally	Blakey	PLEASE -- we need our Net Neutrality!!
Edward	Blanchette	Keep the internet equal for all.
Thomas	Blaney
Y.	Blank	Net neutrality is a necessity for real "persons".
Patricia	Blank
Toney	Blankas
Sandy	Blankenship	Focus should be to strengthen Net Neutrality.&#8232;&#8232; You have authority to reclassify the Internet as a telecommunications service, requiring all data on the Internet be carried at same price without discrimination.
Diana	Blanks
Robin	Blanton
Marie	Blasi	We need REAL net neutrality.
Nancy	Blastos
Robert	Blau	Where all the news media are being devoured by filthy rich corporations, the internet is thus the only surviving democratic medium. Who do you serve?
Jacob	Blaustein
Beth	Blenz-Clucas	The internet should be considered a public good -- don't let a few private companies monopolize and control what the people are allowed to see!
Kay	Blevins	It is always the little people against theGiants. When does the government give a chance?????????????
Jill	Blevins
Ann (And Elmer)	Bley	The belongs to the people. The free flow of information should continue unencumbered by corporate interests.
Joe	Blicharz	If it ain't broke don't feel it has to be fixed. This will stifle free speech, which we have little of already! Getting corporations involved and charging high fees for access ain't going to make things better.
Suzanne	Blier	An open internet is critical to research and ongoing scholarly communications with colleagues and artists in Africa and elsewhere in the third world. It is also vital to the kind of forward-thinking projects that I and others are doing on the web.
Rick	Bligh	I'll keep this short and sweet. No slow or fast lanes that are $$ dependent. Equal access for all!
J. L.	Blinne	Keep the internet fair for all. Surely we, the people, deserve to have something that is equal for all instead of big monopolies always trying to profit over everything.
Joy	Bloch	Equal and open access to the internet is as important as all the other utilities we use. Keep America a country that promotes innovation and ingenuity. Do not weaken net neutrality.

Julie Hagan	Bloch	There are things in life that are more important than money. Freedom of information is one of them.
Patricia	Blochowiak
Andre	Block
Eric	Block
jean	block
Lou	Block	We need real net neutrality and to allow fast lanes for some will be unfair to the rest of us users.
Fredi	Bloom	It is vital that this ubiquitous means of indication. That all the world has come to rely on. Rain cheap and accessible. For everyone. To allow better speeds, etc based on ability to pay is truly establishing an unfair and biased playing field.
Todd	Bloom	Please maintain net neutrality! Don't put free speech in the slow lane!
Jerry	Bloss	Please don't futher disenfranchise the powerless in our country, and further weaken our democracy by granting special privileges and power to those with more wealth through the weakening of net neutrality. <sup>9</sup>
Linda	Blotner	We must continue to have net neutrality. We cannot allow corporations, businesses (especially tech companies) to destroy net neutrality for the people.
Joe	Blotnick	Free speech means equal access to speech for all. Even of the 1% controlling everything. This is government for the people by the people. Corporations are not people.
Jamie	Blouin
Gerard	Blouin	Why has the FCC become a lobby for greedy big business. The internet is a public utility and not the private profit domain for large companies.
Russell	Blount	Everything is not for sale! Money is killing us.
Terry	Blount	Net neutrality is important to preserve! I urge you to keep it that way.
Patty	Blue	Let's keep this free from big owners taking over our privacy
Eric	Blum
Adam	Blumenthal
Howard	Bluth	The have-nots of this country are already suffering terribly because of widespread inequalities. This plan will only add to the problem.
Wendy	Blyveis	Net neutrality is a source of shared creation. Every advancement society makes is not inherent in capitalism; some things come to society through good will and generosity. Keep the lines open!
Larry	Boatman
Jorissen	Bob
Melantha	Bobrick
Alex	Bobroff	The Internet needs to be re-classified and regulated as a utility because it is now no different than utilities.
Edwin	Bobrow	Please do not add
Leona	Bochantin	I am absolutely against Verizon and Time Warner and others being able to sell fast lanes to the highest bidders. The internet will be controlled by large wealthy corporations and the rest be damned. This is wrong and unfair to consumers.
Oliver	Bock	The internet belongs to all of us and we all need equal access. That means net neutrality. No discrimination based on ability to pay. That means equal access. No fast lanes for those who can pay more. That means net neutrality!
William	Bodden	This nation is at a fork in the road - democracy or tyranny. Don't betray the people. Keep the Internet neutral and free.
Deanna	Boddicker
Joseph	Bode	Do not allow corporations to control the internet, you will limit all of our freedoms!
Patricia	Bode
Connie	Boden	I am a supporter of Net Neutrality. Please don't change matters for the worse for the common people!
Edwin W	Bodine	Do not allow corporate titans like Verizon and Time Warner Cable to sell fast internet lanes online to the highest bidder. Fast lanes for the few mean slow lanes for everyone else.
Robert D	Bodner	Please allow the internet to run without requiring others to pay extra for easier access. That is ridiculous
Karen	Boe
Scott	Boeckle	This is creating a class system online. No one should have special rights to OUR internet!
Judy	Boehm	Shame on you. We the people emlore you-DO NOT pass the "fast lane " Internet changes proposed.
Margaret	Boehm
Sondra	Boes	Keep communication on the internet open to all no matter the size of their wallet.
Philip	Boese	If the FCC's plan to allow fast lanes for the few goes forward, the rest of us will suffer. The deep-pocketed will pay to move their online content at top speed, consigning dissenting voices to the slow lane. We, the people, must have net neutrality.

Brian	Boettcher
David	Bogart
David	Boggeman	Small start up internet companies need the same chance the big corporations had to grow on the internet, not to be hindered by paywalls.
Robert	Boggs	The internet should be open to all, as it's the world's best learning tool.
Robert	Bohmfolk
David	Bohn
Chris	Boivin	The rich already have almost all the advantages now as it is. We should at least keep this fair
Gary	Boivin	Those who can't afford "Fast Lane" Internet access, as dictated by the largest communications companies and the present Administration, nevertheless have the same rights to free choice as the rest of us.
Patricia	Boland	Quit SAYING you care about having an open internet and START DOING SOMETHING ABOUT IT!!!!!!!
Barbara	Boldenow	The 1st Amendment is very clear on this. To consider this change is treasonous and undoes centuries of Freedom and Democracy. Do you really want your name to go down in history as the one who did this? Think about it.
Gregory	Bolian
Leisa	Boling	I disagreed with your plan for the fast lanes internet. We need REAL net neutrality.
Dorothy	Bollant
Richard	Bolotin
Richard	Bolt
Thomas	Bolton
Stephen	Bomber
Geoff	Bommelaere
Andrew	Bonci	PLEASE REMEMBER WHAT AMERICA IS ABOUT. TO CAVE IN TO MONEY AND LARGE CORPORATION IS TO VOTE FOR FASCISM. STOP BEING SHORT SIGHTED.
Charlene Ellis	Bond	We need REAL net NEUTRALITY!!
Michele	Bondy	Net neutrality is still sacrosanct! It was never supposed to favor corporations over individuals. When cable was allowed to negotiate contracts for entire cities or regions, the only losers were the subscribers -- with increased costs! Don't do it!
Jill	Boniske	The question is who do you work for? Is it the people or the corporate interests?
David	Bonnell
Patrick	Bonner
Richard	Bonnet
Mary	Bonneville	This change would be bad for senior citizens like many of us who keep informed on so many issues. Many on limited incomes. But we are active and always VOTE.
Gayle	Bonneville	This proposal for lack of fairness on the Internet is undemocratic, stifles free speech and discriminates against those who can't afford to push and pay our way to the top (speeds).
Barbara	Bononno
Paul	Booker	Haven't the American public suffered enough at the hands of big business. Give us a free and open internet.
Joseph	Boone	keep things equal.
Wes	Boone	The Internet is a vital tool for businesses and MUST be deemed as a common carrier, just like long distance telephone. There has NEVER been a tool that creates a world wide market place like the Internet.
Rita	Boone
Judith	Boore	You need to act in a way that does not appear to be in the service of corporate interests. Trust in government is at a low, and it needs to be raised.
Sandra	Booth	The internet needs to remain fair and equal for all, not faster and safer for the wealthy! There is no good reason for us not to have real net neutrality for all.
Bill	Booth
Sara	Booth
Tom	Borcher	We need REAL net neutrality. Anything else would hinder startups and new business growth in the US.
Catherine	Borden	Please protect true net neutrality
Michael	Bordenave
Les	Borean	Keep the internet free of corporate greed
Bridget	Borer	Not just an open internet, we want a neutral internet. Show no favoritism to big corporate spenders!
Suzanne	Bores
Ew	Borg
Robert	Boring

Scott	Bornkessel
Coleen	Borrego
Laura	Borst
Lee	Bory
Ronnie	Bosch Rn	Come on, we the people paid for the internet, it is ours and not for some horrid corporation to make even more profit
Michael	Bosley	Internet service is open to all, whatever your economic status. Its one of the last bastions of open and free communication left in this country, and if we are truly the worlds greatest democracy it should remain so.
Leana	Bosley
Lotus	Boss
Kristen	Bossert	FREEDOM, that is what our country stands for.
Susan	Bossley	Please do not allow the internet to become a tool of the rich and powerful or restrict the freedom the common man enjoys. Please respect true neutrality in your decisions.
Allan	Bostelmann
Herb	Bostrom	Large companies already own most of the sources of information for the American public. It is imperative for free speech that the internet remain open and unfettered. Please do not allow big-money to control the Internet. Thank you
Nancy	Bostwick	corporate crap has ruined the environment, the country and the rest of the world,,,now you want to ruin the internet JUST because of MONEY??!!!
Jerry	Boswell
Lucas	Botan
Monica	Bott	We do not, in this country, censor speech, thoughts or access to others'. To do so is to upset the balance that has provided the freedom that we enjoy. It's the World Wide Web, not the Comcast Wide Web. Is that the legacy you care to cultivate?
Linda	Bottarini
Carol	Boucher
Ron	Boudreau	Big money wins again. Not the US I thought I was living in.
Diane	Boudreaux
Joan	Boudreaux	We need net neutrality.
Dick	Bourbeau	Don't you think the 2% has enough benefit? The Internet does not need a class system. Enough is enough!
Bonnie	Bourdeau
Larry	Bourdeau
Paula	Bourgeois	If the Major telecom and cable companies gain control over me on the internet.....I will suspend my internet activity.....I am tired of the 99% being shafted and will not spend what little money I have the way someone else wants me to spend it.
Kathleen	Bovello	One speed on the internet - nothing else will do. Thank you.
Jere Bob	Bowden	No "special" users of the net. Keep net neutrality for everyone's benefit - not for the privileged. Sincerely, Jere Bob Bowden
Joan	Bowden	These greed-grabs have to stop!
John	Bowen	Net neutrality is vital for a True Democracy!
Eleanor	Bowen	Please do not allow greed to invade this area of our society any more than it already has. Please.
Susan	Bowen	Please do not allow the few already rich cooperate power to gain profits at the cost of the rest of us. Thank you.
Dane	Bowen	Since the people of this and ALL countries overwhelmingly support an open internet, I would say this is rigged and filled with crooked politicians.
Candy	Bowen	telecom & cable companies need to remain NEUTRAL. PERIOD.
Ann	Bowen
Virginia	Bower	Anyone ever hear of the First Amendment?
Doug	Bower	Isn't there enough inequality in this world and elitism based on the domination of money without creating or altering yet another domain to reflect this. Internet access needs to remain an equal access opportunity.
Anna	Bower
Eileen	Bowerman
Gary	Bowers
William	Bowker
Jack	Bowles
Gerald	Bowman	No internet interference. Neutrality is key to freedom.
Valorie	Bowman
Alice	Bowron	As a disabled senior on a low income I cannot afford anything but local-area free wifi & "rabbit-ears" antennae-TV. My access to media is being threatened with control by big-pocket players.

Margery M.	Bowser
Neil	Boxer	Leave it alone. It works just fine.
Susan	Boyce	Stop controlling us by ripping us off at every step of the way!
Ed	Boyce
Donna	Boyd	We need Real net neutrality.
Charlene	Boydston	Don't privatize the Internet! Keep the Internet free and fast for everyone!
Richard	Boyer	No fast lanes for the few! PROTECT NET NEUTRALITY - Please!
John	Boyer	You must maintain equality for the spoken word!
John	Boyle	Like we all are fucking interested to have big business control the internet. Keep the internet open and free or you will Americans destroy any bum who wants to take free speech away. The young would up rise more than uprising never seen before in USA
Jim	Boyle	PLEASE STOP THE CORPORATE MADNESS!
Daniel	Boyle	the FCC was created to look out for the people, let's do it! Real Net Neutrality forever!
Mary	Boyle	This is so obviously a fairness issue that it is very hard to believe that granting companies like Comcast more power over our lives is something that the FCC would even consider!
Keith	Boyles	FAST LANES OR THE FEW EQUAL TYRANNY FOR THE MANY!!! SLOOOOW DOWN NOW!
Jonathan	Boyne
Kay	Boyne-Mead	What will it be next??
John	Boys	i want no restriction of my bandwidth
Barbara	Boysen
Amanda	Bracarello
Kyle	Bracken	The internet is the only place where you can have freedom of speech, freedom of religion, freedom of thought, freedom to be who you want to be with less discrimination than outside of cyberspace. Thats why free thought moved to cyberspace.
Gregory	Bradford	Equal access for ALL citizens is an American value. Corporate goals must not supersede our citizens.
Leslie	Bradford
Matthew	Bradley	again, those with $'s rule the rest of us?? really??
Lisa	Bradley	Bad idea! Seriously it is not right!
James	Brady
David	Brady
Christopher	Bragg
J. Robert	Bragonier	We need REAL net neutrality, and I'm skeptical about the 'fast lanes' I've seen proposed. There's too much money in too few hands today, and too many ways that money is used to benefit the powerful over the people. Keep the Internet free!
Joanne	Brakatselos	Free and open Internet for all! Don't sell out average citizens !
Sharon	Bramblett
David	Brame
Jon	Brams	The Internet transcends the media landscape. It is akin to a public utility and should be regulated like one. All users should be treated equally.
C.	Branca	No fast lanes for the few. Keep internet neutrality.
Jack	Brand	Dear FCC, No fast lanes for the few, but net neutrality for all. We want a free and open internet. Thank you, JBrand
Thomas	Brand	Why not fast for everyone? We are far behind Europe. Don't we have any pride?
Kris	Brandenburger	A free and open internet is what a democracy requires. Net neutrality should not be sacrificed to corporatize the net.
Barbara	Brandler
William	Brandom	Just do it.
Sara	Brandon
Pamela	Brandt	Keep the internet open and free for all.
E.	Brandt
Vicky	Brandt
John	Branosky	Show America and the world your an American.
Shari	Brase-Smith	The internet needs to be accessible to all people, not just a few privileged ones!
Deborah	Bratcher	Keep the Internet access equal for all. No fast lanes. Make this like all other utilities.
Donna	Bratton
Terry	Brauer	FCC is supported by tax revenues. It should always act in the public interest. Corporate interests aren't the public interest. .
Matthew	Braun	ISPs should be considered common carriers, and the associated rules should be applied to them. Preserve real net neutrality, and get rid of the pay to play internet. We don't want to become an international laughingstock.
David	Braun

Helene	Brazier	Don't pick winners and losers on the internet. We need real net neutrality to ensure that we all have a chance to participate on an equal footing.
Harold	Brecher
Phil	Breen	Enough breaks for the wealthy, who make money by pushing money around, polluting the planet, and bribing congressmen. How about an open internet for innovators, researchers, inventors, and thinkers? These people will add to the US bottom line.
Barbara	Breer	Please keep equal access for all to the internet.
Jerry	Brees	Reclassify the internet as a common carrier. The internet belongs to the public, not the corporations.
Carol	Breest	Keep the internet equal for all. Don't let the camel in the tent. It will destroy it as we know it if given free reign.
Jack	Breglio	My wife and I are retired and live on a fixed income. Your plan to sell selected high speed frequencies would unfairly impact our uses of what should be "free" access. Don't change current policy!
John	Bremer	You need to follow the lead of Mexico which has finally done something about their telecoms monopoly. What's more important, the contest for richest man in the world or freedom for American citizens?
Ron	Brendle
John	Brennan	Free internet for all
Michael	Brennan	I oppose changing the rules of the internet so that everyone is not treated the same.
Ellen	Brennan	The developer of the world wide web GAVE it to humanity. He didn't start a company and charge for using it. He GAVE it to humanity. You need to follow his example and re-classify the web as a utility and protect the web for people
John	Brennan
Robert	Brenon	Stop now and back away from my internet!
Wendy	Bresemann
Steven	Brewer
Sheryl	Brezina	Inequality is at its greatest point in a hundred years. Access to information is one of the best ways to create opportunity for the disadvantaged. Net neutrality is crucial for fairness.
Ron	Brickman
Michael	Bridge	An internet in the public interest is a neutral internet.
Stephen	Brien
Leo	Briere	The Internet is not a commodity, it is a medium, and users are not customers. Ready Internet access to information is fundamental to the existence of true democracy, and abandoning the principal of net neutrality abandons too much.
Mara	Briere	We NEED real net neutrality.
Frank	Briggs	Do not create fast and slow, two tier internet speeds. Simply stop allowing Netflix and other HD movies from streaming on-line.
Julia	Briggs	Regulate the internet as a utility
William	Briggs
Rob	Briggs	We need net neutrality because the internet has become so much a part of daily lives. Favored access also means unfavored access.
Sara	Brigham
Lewis	Bright	Please save the open internet.
Bill	Bright
Frank A.	Brincka	The Internet is a public resource and should be treated as any other essential public utility. We need REAL net neutrality!
Paul	Brinich	The cable and telecom companies have upped their prices FAR BEYOND the rate of inflation and defend this by saying they offer more choices -- but most of what they offer is junk!
Elisabeth	Brink	I urge the FCC to keep the internet free and equal for all users. It is the FCC's mandate to protect the freedoms of US citizens, not to give advantages to private corporations.
Alan	Brinker	It would be a major mistake to let a company put political ads for your party in the slow lane. But that, in fact, is what you are doing if you allow speed control by telecom of the internet.
Cheryl	Brinkley	Without net neutrality, my micro-business would have to go out of business, and I'd go from self-employed to unemployed.
Valerie	Brinton	The internet should DEFINITELY be considered a public utility and no for-profit enterprise or corporation should be able to control the access speed or anything else.
Jose	Briseno	Please stop try to regulate the internet. It is the last open form of freedom. If this passes the cracks below the ruling structures feet will begin to crumble. How many times must we shoot this type of bill down?
Nancy	Bristol
Garrett	Britten	Please be fair

Joanne	Britton
Stephen	Brklycica
E	Broadbent	Is it your job to look after corporate interests or to look after the interests of citizens?
David	Broadwater
Valerie	Broatch
Jeremy	Brock	Net neutrality helps preserve free speech on the world wide web. Don't discard it for a pay-to-play scheme.
David	Broden	I depend on the internet every day, like checking out events I want to buy tickets for, finding things to shop online that I can't find in typical stores, checking my banking statements online, watching streaming videos and so much more!!!
Peter	Broderson
Mimi	Brody	Save the Internet for EVERYONE! Don't allow a fast lane for the few, at the expense of nonprofits and other independent voices! Please don't approve the FCC's proposed rule!
Elizabeth	Brody	That's just not right. It's greedy.
John	Brombaugh	Do not change the internet
Tina	Brooks	The internet needs to remain free and equally available to all, not controlled by the highest bidder(s).
Robyn	Brooks	The internet should remain FREE. This ongoing debate brought on by big corporations who want control of money and power needs to end. Put a stop to this once and for all. FREE INTERNET. Now and always!
Theodore	Brooks	There seems to be a vefy motivaated movement inside the federla goivernment to just let big business run away with all of our individuals freedoms. I implore to not make the internet part of this power grab.
Roger	Brooks
Jane	Brooks
Eben	Brooks
Michael Scott	Brooks
Karyn	Broselofsky
Robert	Brosius	It appears we must once again stand up to keep our internet neutral. Net neutrality is based in the concept of equality. Equality demands equal access. Without equal access, our democracy fails.
Jill	Brotman	I am sick of writing so many letters each day in order to combat or try to combat the greed of corporations and to beg a government that sells to the highest bidder--apparently whether Democrat or Republican. The FCC is disgusting.
Erich	Brough	It is completely erroneous for telecom companies to be allowed to turn the information superhighway into a toll road to boost their profitability. The Web does NOT exist for their sake, but as a shared resource equally available to all voices.
john	broussard	Keep the internet open
Randy	Broussard	Not No, but HELL NO!!!!!!
Marc	Broussard	Please keep your hands off my internet. You do not own the cloud.
Philip	Broussard	Support American Ingenuity! Save Net Neutrality!
Kay	Brown	democracy does not tolerate two-tier internet access. The internet is a utility no longer a luxury. We must have net neutrality. Why not?
Peggy J.	Brown	Do not allow the corporates to suppress freedom of speech and sharing of voice by allowing unprecedented control over the internet! We need REAL net neutrality!
Denise	Brown	I'm so tired of corporate telling and dictating! Let them have it! Who the heck cares! Does that mean we'd actually have to read books, use the telephone and library and do manual research? Is this a problem? You can't live without the internet?
Georgeanne	Brown	Keep fast internet access available to all. This is a strength of our democratic society.
Sylvia	Brown	Keep Internet access available to all people, not only the few rich people.
ann marie	brown	keep the right to use the internet free and unregulated! keep the 99% with open lanes to communication!
Matthew	Brown	Most of the sites I frequent are non-profits and others run by smaller organizations that will not be able to pay for premium speed and will be relegated to the slow lanes.
Lorraine	Brown	Net neutrality, please. No control by the big companies with deep pockets.
Bonnie Jean	Brown	PLEASE! We need TRUE and ACTUAL internet neutrality, NOT a discriminatory ruling which allows those with BIG money to have TOP speed internet while everyone ELSE is confined to SLOW!!!
Steve	Brown	Please. Do not turn over the Internet to Big Business. It was meant for everyone. Equally. STEVE BROWN
Gary	Brown	SELLING fast lane internet is UNAMERICAN. PLEASE stay out of the internet.
Casey	Brown	Shame on you if you let this go through FCC!! It could be a huge loss to truth & justice and would certainly be a great loss to human rights, freedoms & the right to free expression!!!

Tom	Brown	The FCC is attempting to do with Internet what the Supreme Court did in the bogus Citizen's United decision-equate money with free speech. Democracy loses if the Internet's sold to the highest bidder. Money is not free speech! Keep the Net neutral!!
Jeanne	Brown	The FCC needs to be working for the American people, not for multinational corporations. They can take care of themselves.
Greg	Brown	The internet is the major source that people use to communicate in all matters. Whether its news. email or social media there should be equal access to the internet without money determining the speed, quality and ability to communicate.
Chris	Brown	The internet needs to be open and free for all individuals.
Greg	Brown	The Internet should remain a democratic resource with everyone having equal access. i not only believe that allowing corporations to sell higher speeds for some and less for others is deeply corrupt, but antidemocratic and criminally. Please prevent it.
Elliott	Brown	The Internet was developed with my tax dollars. It belongs to the people.
Malita	Brown	This is oine area that should stay fair, where the wealthy don't have the advantage. Their stock market purchases and sales should not be speedier than ours.
Larry	Brown
Robert	Brown
Karen	Brown
Sandra	Brown
Doug	Brown
Barry	Brown
Leesa	Brown
Bonnie	Brown
Margery	Brown
Stephen	Brown
evie	brown
Kevin	Brown
Robert C	Brown	Will this yet another give away to corporate money in America? Keep the internet free of financial influence. Vote NO on this ill-conceived, greed-inspired idea. Freedom is more important than profit.
John T.	Browne	The internet should be democratic. I don't wish to be a 2nd Class citizen.
Warren	Brownell	In the Information Age restricting the flow of information is a crime.
Ross	Browning	Dear Commission Members, If I'm not mistaken one of your functions is to lookout for and act in the best interests of the American public. The growth and pricing of the internet which is offered to the American is NOT in our best interest. Thank you.
Becky	Browning
Craig	Browning
Cathy	Brownlee
Barbara	Broz	Net neutrality - period.
TD	Bruce	Information is power. We need to keep the power with the people so we cannot be led by misinformation in directions we would not go if all the facts are known. NET NEUTRALITY IS A MUST FOR A ROBUST DEMOCRACY!
Penny	Bruce
Kenneth	Bruckmeier
Paul	Bruggeman	How many millions of jobs rely on an open and unhindered internet. I know mine does!!
Cort	Brumfield
David	Bruner	Don't balkanize our internet. We require and demand that the FCC maintain real net neutrality.
Aaron	Brunette	Creating fast lanes is a terrible idea that inhibits new businesses and will fundamentally change the way the internet works. Please commit to a free and open internet.
Mary	Brunson
Erika	Brunson
James	Brunton
Babette	Bruton
Aleta	Bruzzese	This is outrageous and should not be up for debate!
Teresa	Bryan
Mary	Bryan
Marilyn	Bryan
Judith	Bryant	The major telecommunications corporations already control the majority of what we see on other venues. To enable them to gain the ability to monopolize the fastest internet speeds is acting contrary to the public weal.
Suzy	Bryant
Emily	Bryant

Tom	Bryson
Ken	Bubb	Open internet belongs to all the American people and not the greedy communications businesses. Keep the internet open.
Wally	Bubelis	Fast lanes for those who can afford them will leave a lot of Americans in the dust, particularly kids in public schools and anyone whose primary Internet access is at their local public library. Please keep the Internet fair.
David	Buck	Our people and economy would suffer considerable damage if the Internet is not treated as the public utility it really is, with equal access for all. The Internet is intended for truly democratic use, as are the airwaves.
Devin	Buckley
Marian	Buckner	Dear Members of FCC, I strongly object to the FCC giving more power to major telecom and cable companies over the needs of nonprofits, independent and other voices to express themselves and provide the optimum balance.
Andrea	Budin	Open Internet is essential. Hands off. Corporations again, overriding the people's rights? Government truly seems to be bought and paid for. I stand with The People!
Shonie	Buenvendida
Daniel	Buerger	please do not destroy the democratic freedom and equality of the net by giving away its neutrality!
Rosa	Buffalo	The las bastion of information is the internet- Stop creating divisions within the haves and have nots. This is a Monopoly that should not be allowed to happen. We should all have access to information and you to our advertising attention.
Andrew	Bukovitz	net neutrality levels the field, keep it that way
Tom	Bulger	Such a change could only hurt small business growth and development.
Jay	Bulkley	To FCC: Don't let big business interfere with your moral judgement.
Larry	Bulling	Maintain internet neutrality.
Louise	Bullock	I believe that everyone should have equal access to the Internet whether it is for personal or business use. REAL net neutrality should be a given!
Eddie	Bumguardner	Equal internet access for all. The internet should be considered the same as a utility, serving the public.
Patricia	Bumiller	It is vitally important that you act to protect the future of the internet and the rights of the average citizen.
Robert	Bundy	Fair use is equal access not dependent on corporate clout. Don't allow the division of access bases on the ability to buy access!
Dee	Bunge	The internet is a valuable tool for all humans. It shouldn't let big money bully their way into a faster or bigger share.
Mini	Bunny
Leslie	Burby
Maryann	Burch
Ray	Burd	This is another attempt by government to interfere in something it shouldn't! They need to place their efforts in jobs, housing, banking reforms, wall street reforms, corporate tax obligation - cut out loop holes, health care, foreign trade deficit.
Dennis	Burdick
Jenny	Burger
Douglas	Burgess	Please keep the internet a level playing field. One speed for all.
Melinda	Burgess
Geraldine	Burgess
Peggy	Burgin
Elizabeth	Burin	Please ensure equal access to the internet for all.
Robert	Burk
Don	Burkart	no fast lanes
Maureen	Burke	It's so important that the FCC rules in favor of net neutrality. The FCC works on behalf, or should work on behalf, of the people. You should not be rewarding corporations by allowing them to charge the common person more to use the internet. Thank you.
Carol	Burke	The internet must not be sold to the highest bidder. It must be available to all socio-economic peoples. It is the pathway of communication to the future. Please consider ALL people when looking at this proposal.
Howard	Burke	The tech explosion and the depth of the internet are due to a level field. Don't fix what is not broken.
Lawrence	Burke
Gene	Burke	WANTED: REAL NET NEUTRALITY!
Judy	Burke	We, the people should have the same access as corporations. Many of us do business at home
Ann	Burkes
